

Textual Variation in Swinburne's Poems and Ballads, first series:

Texts Examined:

MU = initial printing, Moxon 1866 with printer's errors (not yet collated -- any information re: this volume comes from collations by T. J. Wise). Library of Mark Samuels Lasner, and library of Cecil Lang.

NY = Carleton/Moxon "Author's Edition" 1866 (set from MU with spelling Americanized, punctuation regularized, and additional errors). Alderman Library and Special Collections, UVA. (Americanized spellings in a separate listing.)

MC = same edition as MU with errors detected by ACS corrected, 1866. UVA Special Collections and library of Jerome J. McGann.

(HM = Moxon remainders with Hotten title-page inserted. No variations between this text and MC, therefore not listed below. UVA Special Collections.) ← this was my original note to HM. I now realize that one of my own copies is a Moxon Corrected HM. (should really call it an HMC for clarity. Not yet collated.)

HR = first Hotten reprint set from MU 1866, with additional errors. Library of Jerome J. McGann.

CW = Chatto & Windus (Harper's) edition, 1904. Alderman Library, UVA, and Chadwyck-Healey electronic edition.

E = Emory copy, a potential HU. "First edition with Hotten's title page and uncorrected text as first published by Moxon." Trimmed and re-bound in red (morocco?) with gilt sometime after it was referred to as "first series." See photos, and note that I did not do a full collation – I only compared E against this apparatus. Hotten title page seems integral (though this could be because of rebinding), as does B1 and B2. In fact, I can find no cancel leaves, therefore leading me to believe that this is a Moxon Uncorrected with Hotten's title page tipped in, later separated from the Burne-Jones dedication page when re-bound (paper on dedication page is very thin in the gutter). Paper is generally thin like Moxon, but hard to tell with nothing to compare it to. Page signatures are found at lower right. Colophon "BRADBURY, EVANS, AND CO., PRINTERS, WHITEFRIARS" at bottom of 344. No advertisements. See variants 1.4 and 146.5 – E is my only witness so far to those readings.

(Note: Further variants from pre-1866 publications appear in a separate index.)

Variant Readings:

Descriptive Bibliography:

The Moxon Uncorrected (MU) state:

POEMS AND BALLADS. / BY / ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE. / LONDON: / EDWARD MOXON & Co., DOVER STREET. / 1866.

Foolscap octavo, pp.vii + 344; consisting of title-page with imprint "London: / Bradbury, Evans, and Co., Printers, Whitefriars" on center of verso, pp i-ii; dedication-page ("TO / MY FRIEND / EDWARD BURNE JONES / THESE POEMS / ARE AFFECTIONATELY AND ADMIRINGLY / DEDICATED.") with blank verso, pp. iii-iv; table of contents, pp. v-vii; blank verso of vii; text of the poems, pp. 1-344, including a separate fly-title to "Laus Veneris" with its french epigraph on the verso. Head-lines throughout with poem titles. Page 10 is blank. Printer's imprint repeated at foot of page 344. Signatures at bottom right: A (4 leaves), B-Y (21 sheets, each 8 leaves) and Z (4 leaves). No half-title page. Leaf N3 cancelled in press. Smaller type employed for two stanzas on page 222. Eight pages of Moxon's advertisements for Swinburne publications bound in a separate quire before title-page: "ATALANTA. / BY ALGERNON C. SWINBURNE. / Fcap. 8vo, cloth, 6s. / EDWARD MOXON & Co. / [single rule] / OPINIONS OF THE PRESS." followed by 13 excerpted reviews and "CHASTELARD. / BY ALGERNON C. SWINBURNE. / Fcap. 8vo, cloth, 6s. / EDWARD MOXON & Co. / [single rule] / OPINIONS OF THE PRESS." followed by 18 excerpted reviews. Green, straight-grained cloth boards. Stamped ornament (publisher's monogram) on front and gilt lettering on spine: POEMS / & / BALLADS / SWINBURNE / LONDON / MOXON. Leaves measure 6 e x 4c inches.

The Moxon Corrected (MC) issue:

POEMS AND BALLADS. / BY / ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE. / LONDON: / EDWARD MOXON & Co., DOVER STREET. / 1866.

Identical to MU in all respects except for the insertion of cancel-leaves (B1, B2, B3, B6, E7, I2, N7, P3, Q3, T3, T7, U3, X5, Y4, and Z1) and the appearance of hand-corrections to punctuation within the text (see Historical Collation).

The first Hotten (HM) issue:

POEMS AND BALLADS. / BY / ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE. / LONDON: / JOHN CAMDEN HOTTEN, PICADILLY. / 1866.

Identical to MC in all respects except for the removal of the Moxon title-page and advertisements and the insertion of Hotten's half-title (POEMS AND BALLADS.) and title page as above. (Wise records that some states of this issue contain faulty sheets cancelled at the time of the MC corrections.)

The first Hotten (HR) edition:

POEMS AND BALLADS. / BY / ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE. / LONDON: / JOHN CAMDEN HOTTEN, PICADILLY. / 1866.

Crown octavo, viii + 344. Half-title with blank verso pp. i-ii; title-page with imprint "London: / Savill and Edwards, Printers, Chandos Street, / Covent Garden" at center of verso, pp. iii-iv; dedication (as in MC) with blank verso, pp. v-vi; table of contents, pp. vii-viii. No printer's imprint (as in MC) at foot of page 344. Signatures appear at center of leaves. Type on page 222 all of a uniform size. This edition appears to have been set from the faulty MU text, with errors re-introduced. Green, straight-grained cloth boards with gilt lettering on binding: POEMS / & / BALLADS / SWINBURNE.

The first American (NY) edition:

LAUS VENERIS, / AND OTHER / POEMS AND BALLADS. / BY / ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE. / [publisher's monogram] / NEW YORK / Carleton, Publisher, 413 Broadway. / LONDON: MOXON & Co. / MDCCCLXVI.

Crown octavo, pp. viii + 328. Title-page as above with "AUTHOR'S EDITION" at center of verso, i-ii; dedication-page as in MC but with type-face elaboration and wood-cut of a book in chains on verso; "Laus Veneris" re-positioned as first poem in volume with separate fly-title and wood-cut of a lyre on verso; wood-cut of a nesting bird facing page 31. Signatures (2-21) positioned at center. Headlines with poem-titles throughout; error in head-line for "Rococo," page 131. Maroon cloth boards, indigo edging, gilt lettering ("LAUS VENERIS" [in swirl scrolls]) on face and spine: "LAUS VENERIS [in swirl scrolls] / SWINBURNE / CARLETON / NEW YORK."

Swinburne's "Notes" (1866):

NOTES ON POEMS AND / REVIEWS. / BY / ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE. / "Je pense sur ces satires comme Épictète: 'Si l'on dit du mal de toi, et qu'il soit / véritable, corrige-toi; si ce son des mensonges, ris-en.' J'ai appris avec l'>ge à devenir / bon cheval de poste; je fais ma station, et ne m'embarrasse pas des roquets qui aboient / en chemin.—Frédéric le Grand. / "Ignorance by herself is an awkward lumpish wench; not yet fallen into vicious courses, nor to be uncharitably treated: but Ignorance and Insolence, these are, for / certain, an unlovely Mother and Bastard!" —Carlyle. / LONDON: / JOHN CAMDEN HOTTEN, PICADILLY. / 1866.

Crown octavo, pp.23: consisting of half-title (NOTES ON POEMS AND / REVIEWS.) with blank verso, pp.1-2; title-page as above with imprint "London: / Savill and Edwards, Printers, Chandos Street / Covent Garden" on center of verso, pp.3-4; and text pp.5-23. Pamphlet consists of a full sheet of 8 leaves, inset with a half-sheet of 4 leaves. Issued stitched and without wrappers. Leaves trimmed, 83 x 53 inches.

W. M. Rossetti's criticism of Swinburne (1866):

SWINBURNE'S / POEMS AND BALLADS. / A CRITICISM / BY / WILLIAM MICHAEL ROSSETTI. / "Let us for a moment stoop to the arbitration of popular breath. / Let us assume that Homer was a drunkard, that Virgil was a / flatterer, that Horace was a coward, that Tasso was a madman. / Observe in what a ludicrous chaos the imputations of real or ficti- / tious crime have been confused in the contemporary calumnies / against poetry and poets." — SHELLEY. / LONDON: / JOHN CAMDEN HOTTEN, PICADILLY. / 1866. / [All rights reserved.]

Foolscap octavo, pp.80, including half-title, title (with imprint on verso: "London: R. Clay, Son, and Taylor, Printers, Bread Street Hill"), and a 2-paged prefatory note (dated 18th October 1866. Imprint repeated at foot of page 80. Small sheet of advertisements pasted into front cover. Sixteen pages of advertisements for Hotten publications are included in a separate quire at the back, with notice that "The public are respectfully informed that Mr. Swinburne's work will in future be published by Mr. Hotten." Issued in straight-grained, green cloth boards, gilt-lettered on spine: A CRITICISM / ROSSETTI / 1866.
